October 2019

It is that time of the year again! The 3rd annual Broadway Halloween Parade will take place on Saturday, October 19 at 6 pm. Featuring various spooky floats, bands and marchers, this annual tradition and community-friendly event will stretch from 5th to Alameda along Broadway. Please join in the fun by wearing your favorite Halloween costume and posting up outside your favorite Broadway location!

Hope to see you there for a spooktacular night!

Denver Water submitted its Lead Reduction Program Plan to the Environmental Protection Agency and wants your feedback! The plan is a more holistic and cost-effective option than adding orthophosphate to drinking water in March 2020 — which is the current mandate to reduce the risk of lead in tap water for homes with lead plumbing and service lines. All comments will be provided to EPA and the State for consideration as they determine the final course of action. A decision is expected to be made by the end of 2019. View the summary and provide a comment by Oct. 10 HERE.

Denver Police Academy

If you are interested in a career as a Denver police officer, firefighter or deputy sheriff, the Denver Public Safety Cadet Program is a great opportunity! Learn more at the annual community event that features guest speakers and opportunities to interact with current/former Cadets. Equifax Data Breach

In 2017, Equifax, one of the three largest credit reporting agencies, had a significant data breach. More than 148 million consumer identities were compromised. You may be eligible for settlement money:

1. First, determine whether or not your information was affected in the Equifax data breach here.
2. If you have been compromised, your first task will be to choose from one of three options.
   - Free credit monitoring services or a cash payment of up to $125.
   - Free identity restoration services to help you remedy the effects of identity theft and fraud.
   - Reimbursement of time spent, out of pocket expenses or partial reimbursement of credit monitoring.
Fall Denver Arts & Venues Exhibitions
Check out these fall art exhibitions at the McNichols Civic Center Building (corner of Colfax & Bannock):

- Bauhaus 100: Design and Sustainability (through Dec. 22) This exhibition is designed to inspire a conversation about sustainable practices, highlighting beautiful, well-designed and well-made objects likely to be kept long-term.

- Para mi Pueblo: Chicano/a Muralists of Colorado (through Dec. 22) From the late 1960s to the present, Chicano/a muralists have actively transformed the urban landscapes of Colorado, creating public images that celebrate the diversity and history of the state.

- Hunger Through My Lens (Oct. 1-25) A multi-media exhibit featuring photography, video, audio and virtual reality to provide a journey of what hunger looks like in Colorado.

All exhibitions are free and open to the public Monday-Friday, 8 am - 5 pm and Saturday and Sunday, 10 am - 3 pm.
